JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE BEACH AT EVENTIDE.

There is no solitude like this. The beach,
Stretching afar, lapped by the sluggish wave,
Is silent, save the murmurous tones that reach
The listening ear, soft, musical, and grave;
Tones that the winds take up and bear along,
Mingling their sweetness with the land-bird's song.

The sea-bird on its level-gliding wing doth sail
Its wandering mate to track the shining sand;
No other voice save the hushed wind's doth fall
Upon the soothing silence; cool and bland
The zephyrs come, sweeping old ocean's breast,
Charming to peace its bosom of unrest.

As thus the waters sleep 'neath tender skies,
That bathe them in their own celestial hue,
Let their calm influence still the storms that rise
In the o'erburdened heart, and plant anew
Undying hope, and strength, and patience still,
To grasp the good or bide the coming ill.

For He who slumbers not, but keeps always
His watch o'er ocean waves, their ebb and flow
See in the ongoing tides that, day by day,
Through human hearts forever come and go,
His, His alone, the plummet that can sound
The depths of both alike—dark, restless, and profound.

HOW I GOT INVITED TO DINNER.

My gettin' the better of my wife's father is one of the richest things on record.

I'll tell you how it was. You must know that he is monstrous stingy. The complaint seems to run in the family, and everybody 'round our parts used to notice that he never by any chance asked anybody to dine with him. So one day, just for a chunk of fun, I said to a friend of mine, Jeddy Dowkins—a dreadful nice fellow is Jeddy—"I'll bet you a penn'orth of shoe-strings ginst a row of pins, that I get old Ben Merkins, that's my wife's father, to ask me to dinner."

"You git out," said Jeddy; "why, you might as well try to coax a cat into a shower bath, or get moonbeams out of cowcumbers."

"Well," said I, "I am going to try."

And try I did, and I'll tell you how I went to work.

Just as old Ben was sittin' down to dinner, at one o'clock, I rushed up to the house at a high-pressure pace, red-hot in the face, with my coat tails in the air, and my eye, rolling about like billiard balls in convulsions. Rat a tat-tat—ding-a-ling a-ling, I kicked up an awful rumpus, and in a flash out came old Ben himself. I had struck the right minnit. He had a napkin under his chin, and carvin' knife in his hand. I smelt the dinner as he opened the door.

"O, Mr. Merkins," said I, "I'm tarnation glad to see you. I feared you moughn't be at home—I'm almost out of breath. I'm come to tell you I can save you a thousand dollars!"

"A thousand dollars!" roared the old man and I defy a weasel to go through a crack any quicker than his face burst into smiles. "One thousand dollars! You don't say so! du tell!"

"Oh," said I, "I see you are just havin' dinner now. I'll go an' dine myself, an' then I'll come back and tell you all about it."

"Nonsense," said he; "don't go away; come in and sit down, and enjoy yourself, like a good fellow, and have a snack with me. I am anxious to hear what you have to say."

I pretended to decline, sayin' "I'd come back;" but I'd thoroughly stirred up the old chap's curiosity, and it ended by his fairly pullin' me into the house, and I made a rattlin' dinner of pork and beans.

I managed for some time to dodge the main pint of his inquiry. At last I finished eating, and there was no further excuse for delay; besides old Ben was gittin' fidgety.

"Come, neow," said he, "no more prelate. "About that thousand dollars; come now, let it out!"

"Well, I'll tell you what, said I, "you have a darter, Misery Ann, to dispose of in marriage, have you not?"

"What's that got to do with it?" interrupted he.

"Hold your proud steeds—don't run off the track—a great deal to do with it," said I.—"Neow, answer my question."

"Well," said he, "I have."

"And you intend, when she marries, to give her $10,000 for a portion?"

"I do," he said.

"Well, neow, here's the pint I'm coming to. Let me have her, and I'll take her with $9,000; and 9,000 from 10,000, according to simple addition, just leaves one, and that will be clean profit—saved as slick as a whistle!"

The next thing I knew there was a rapid interview goin' on between old Ben's foot and my coat tails—and I am inclined to think the latter got the worst of it.

INGENUITY OF ROGUES.

A Hartford, Connecticut, paper tells the following. It shows "how some things can be done:"

A queer case was that of a physician of this city, Dr. ——, who on going to the opera with a friend, was cautioned at the ticket office, in New York, to look out for pickpockets. "He clapped his hand to his watch, a valuable gold one, engraved with his name and the name of the society or friend who gave it to him. It was there all right, and he made sure of keeping it there by keeping his hand on it through the performance of the opera. On coming out what was his astonishment to find his watch gone. It had been taken in spite of his watchfulness. Reflecting that a watch so engraved could not well be disposed of even in New York, he advertised his loss in the next morning's papers, and added that a reward ($100) would be paid for its recovery, and no questions asked. Before noon the bell rang, and a very elegantly dressed man, in appearance a perfect gentleman, inquired for the advertiser of a lost watch.

"Have you got it?" asked the Doctor, quietly.

"I have," cooly returned the stranger; "here it is. I claim the reward."

"Here is the money," said the Doctor a 'and now I want to k-k—"

"Oh, but you said there would be no questions asked,'" answered moustache.

"True," said the Doctor, "but I only want to know how under Heaven you got that watch when I kept my hand on it all the time?"

"Are you sure you kept your hand over it all the time?"

"Yes, positive."

"Now, let me refresh your memory. Don't you remember, at one interesting stage of the performance, there was a fly lit on your ear, and you raised your hand to brush it off?"

"Yes, it is a fact," said the Doctor, "I do remember that."

"Well, sir," said the elegant stranger, "that was the time you lost your watch. I tickled the top of your ear with a straw, and you brushed off the supposed fly, and didn't notice when your hand went back that your watch was no longer there. Good morning, sir."

"Johnny, what gender is hose stockings, you know?" "Sometimes masculine and sometimes feminine." "No, neuter hose is neuter." "Well, anyhow, I heard a man talking on the farm where we boarded, and he said 'he hoes,' and 'she hoes,' and 'the old man hoes,' and that knocks your gender higher'n a kite."

DESIRABLE PROPERTY.
I WILL SELL OR EXCHANGE FOR GOOD City property one of the best Cotton and Grain Farms in Eastern North Carolina. The tract of land contains about seventy-five hundred acres, of which seven hundred acres are cleared, under fence and in good condition for cultivation. A large part of it is in cultivation this year. The soil is fertile, neighborhood good, labor cheap and plentiful. The dwelling house is large and commodious, with all necessary and convenient outhouses. The Stables, Barns, Houses for laborers &c. are good and numerous. This farm lies immediately on navigable water, and has passing through it good water power, where there is now a Grist and Saw Mill and Cotton Gin. The place is desirable for conducting large Mercantile operations, and is a beautiful location for a town or colony. A Steamer passes every day, and touches at the wharf two hundred yards in front of the dwelling. The surrounding county is rich and improving, and settled by intelligent, refined and prosperous people. Address

THE SCARCITY OF MONEY.

There has been an almost universal complaint in this State, especially since the 1st of April, of the scarcity of money. It has been felt by all classes of citizens, but chiefly by farmers and mechanics and laboring people generally. This scarcity has seriously checked the spirit of enterprise, and has subjected many of our most substantial planters to serious inconveniences in the cultivation of their crops, or to what is worse, a very heavy advance for a credit of a few months, upon every article needed by them. This, with the decline in the price of cotton, has a depressing influence upon every species of business in the cotton section.

But the scarcity is not confined to the cotton region. It exists in every part of the State and produces the same effect everywhere. We have heard it remarked repeatedly, that money is scarcer now than it has been any year since the war. Why is this?

There are two causes for this: First, we have too many consumers of products brought from other States and countries and too few producers of products to be exported. The balance of trade is, therefore, against the State, and cash must meet that balance, which, of course, causes a drain of active capital proceeds. State. It is palpable, that the expenses, ation of our people since the war, has been scarcely perceptible, except in a few cases. The body of the people are as poor as they were the day the war closed. But this is not owing so much to the lack of energy and enterprise, though we admit there is yet great room for these, as the fact, that our enterprises have not all been wisely directed, and the results of the labor of our successful citizens have not been invested so as to promote the general good.

It is confessed, that the great want of our people is money, to give employment to labor for the development of our resources. There are here and there men in the State, who have made money, but they have been careful to invest it, not so much with the view of helping others as well as themselves, but either in unproductive property except to themselves or in United States or other bonds, which takes their money out of the general circulation, to reap a sure income to themselves, without conferring any immediate benefit upon the community.

Look, for instance, at the small amount of Banking capital in the State. There is ample room for the employment, profitably, of four times the amount of banking capital, not perhaps at the enormous interest now charged by our Banks and capitalists, but nevertheless, at a rate of interest which would be ample and secure, and which would give an impetus to business and enterprise, hitherto unfelt in the State.

The last General Assembly granted charters for several independent Banks in the State and Congress provided for the increase of banking capital in the South, yet no new Bank has gone into operation. We regret to learn that the proposed Bank in this city, hangs fire, simply because capitalists at home delay to take hold of it.—We are assured that Northern capitalists stand ready to invest large amounts, as soon as our own people take hold of the matter. Our people need help and encouragement, and nothing can afford it but the use of money.

Moreover, our capitalists could greatly promote the general enterprise by projecting Factories. These would give employment to large numbers of persons, who can contribute in no other way to the increase of the products of the State, and would tend to promote activity and enterprise among our people.

LITERARY FUND—PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Holden's organ of Friday has the following:

FALSE.—A LIE.—The SENTINEL of to-day publishes the following falsehood:

"Quite a large amount has been collected for public schools, and a large portion of this has been expended for other purposes than for the payment of teachers."

This unqualifiedly false.

We do not bandy epithets with any one, much less with a paper which has so effectually established its reputation for mendacity, that it can scarcely be believed, if it should happen to tell the truth.

The SENTINEL makes no assertion on any subject, except when it is in possession of facts to warrant it. There is nothing better known in North Carolina, than that the public or common schools established and paid for out of the Literary Fund and the taxes upon the people, have not been reorganized under the Radical regime, only to a very limited extent. Indeed, in this place and in many counties, we have heard of none.

It is equally well known, that a considerable amount of money came into the hands of the Board of Public Instruction the past year, for the re-establishment of public schools, and that the Public Treasurer's report showed that of that amount a large share had been expended, and so far as the public knew, it had not been paid to the teachers of the public schools; hence we made the above statement. We were not in possession of any data which showed the contrary. Mr. Ashley's report is not at hand, or we should have copied the particulars from it.

The Standard however, possesses all the information necessary to show by facts and figures that we were mistaken. Why did it not furnish that information to its readers, instead of resorting to billingsgate for an answer?

The only source of information now before us on this subject, is the statistical table appended to Col. Wheeler's University address, which the Colonel says was taken from the books of the Treasury department. In that table, he gives as collected and disbursed in 1869 the following:

Receipts from Literary Fund, $296,711 81
Disbursements of Literary Fund, 177,958 69

Leaving balance, $118,753 12

Now, it is clear, that $177,918 69 of the funds under the control of the Board of Public Instruction, called by Col. Wheeler the Literary Fund, was expended during the fiscal year 1869. How was this expended? We demand to know. How much of it was paid to public school teachers employed according to law, during 1869?—A direct answer to this question and the evidences of proof will settle that point readily.

STATE TAXES.

We have probably been remiss in not calling the attention of tax payers to an important feature in the law enacted by the late General Assembly. We cannot point specifically to the law, but there is a provision, we judge in the law declaring null the Railroad appropriations of 1868, that each county and tax payer shall be credited in 1870 for that proportion of the special tax collected in 1869, which was then unappropriated in the Treasury. So far as we can learn, no deduction has been made in any case, nor do we understand that the assessments in the several counties were made with that view. We judge that the Public Treasurer or Auditor failed to give any instructions upon that subject. The amount at the time in the Treasury was over $300,000, which deducted from the present tax, would be a material matter in the taxes of some persons.

OUR PISTOL.

Gov. Holden, by the agency of his Adj. Gen. Fisher, sent us to-day our pistol, stolen from us by Kirk's men. We receive it back, hoping to have a good use for it in future, and not to be forced to use it against the attacks of assassins and cut-throats.

CAPT. WM. BIGGS.

The name of this gentleman is familiar to the people of North Carolina, as the active and efficient editor of the Tarboro Southerner, and also as the young gentleman whose functions as a practicing Attorney were for a while suspended by the fiat of Judge Jones, on account of an article that was published of his honor by Capt. Biggs in the Southerner. The papers of the State at once opened their batteries on Judge Jones for attempting to bridle the freedom of the press, and now the House of Representatives will have an opportunity of doing Capt. B. a more effectual service by electing him as reading clerk of that body; and the object of this communication is to urge his claims for that position. I should think the choice would fall upon him with great unanimity, as a testimonial of appreciation for his gallant and untiring labors in behalf of Conservative men and measures.

AMERICUS.

MAINE TURNING.

The Maine election presents the result on a full vote and decided contest, of a Democratic gain of eleven thousand votes. Something of this change is due, no doubt, to the popularity of the Democratic candidate for Governor, General Roberts, who carried Bangor in particular, where he resides, by 600 majority—a gain of 1,140 votes; but the true source of Maine's most significant vote is to be found in the very general disgust throughout the country with the Republican party. The people are tired of it, and, so far as there have been elections for the next Congress, we can say that they have put the stamp of their disapprobation upon it literally from Maine to Oregon. Of course there are other reasons than this assigned by the tricksters who cannot possibly admit that their day is over, and prominent among the apologies offered is the statement that local squabbles distracted the party. We think we heard something like this before when New York, outside the city, went Democratic; and likewise the same thing when Oregon spoke and when North Carolina turned. So remarkable a coincidence of squabbles all over the country seems to show that the Republican party everywhere is pretty badly split, and compels one to remember the ancient proverb which tells us that honest men come by their own when a certain kind of people fall out. No one, of course, expected a Democratic victory in Maine, for the State has been so long accustomed to go Radical that its people by ill-doing have become much demoralized, and their promptings towards purer politics have had to contend with the $15,000 mentioned in our election information elsewhere published this morning. But if figures can be relied on Maine is turning away from Radical wallowings to its old place in the Democratic fold. We suppose its diminished Radical majority is one of the "encouraging signs" the Radicals at Washington profess to see in the skies.—N. Y. World.

Our exchanges throughout the State are accepting the vote of Caswell for Attorney General as having been 637 for Shipp and 251 for Phillips. How can that be, when agreeably to the official return as handed in at Greensboro, Leach received 1211 votes and Scott 15 15 votes at the same election? There is just a difference of 1838 votes. It is not possible that 1838 citizens voted for Congressman, and not for Attorney General. There is something wrong somewhere.

If the vote of Caswell had not been counted for Congressman, as it was not for Attorney General, Leach's majority would have been some sixteen hundred; and if there had been a fair election both in Caswell and Alamance, it would have been over two thousand.—Salem Press.

A man by the name of Nat. Bowman, has been arrested at Jonesboro', Tennessee on the suspicion of being implicated in the recent murder at that place of the young man, Jas. Church, of Wilkes county, in this State.

THE SENATORSHIP.

MR. EDITOR: I regret to see so much importance attached to the Senatorship. The names of many gentlemen, who would give and not borrow honor from any official position, have been named for the position.

When I first knew the U. S. Senate, more than thirty years ago, in the days when there were giants in the land, it was the most dignified and exalted body on earth. It was indeed an honor to associate with Webster, Wright, Buchanan, Wall, Southard, Rives, Brown, Strange, Calhoun, Preston, King, White, Grundy, Clay, Crittenden and such men. But who compose that body now? Is there one man there worthy to unloose the shoelatchets, of the least one of those named above? Oh, not one.

Some two or three winters ago, I was seated in the Senate gallery, that pedantic old scold Sumner, had said something displeasing to Sherman, which the latter declared unparliamentary, ungentlemanly and false. Here the matter ended—and these two men were chairmen of the two most important committees of the Senate: Sumner of Foreign Affairs and Sherman of Finance. Political degeneracy has kept even pace with—if it has not outstripped personal degeneracy. It is a seat in this degenerate body, with its overwhelming Radical majority, that is to be filled.

What important service to our State can the best man within its borders, render in such a position? What can patriotism, earnestness and eloquence avail in such a body? What have the thunder toned expressions of the SENTINEL effected, so far as Holden & Co. are concerned, either before or since the election? And are not Holden, Pearson, Pool, Abbott, Bick, Settle and their confreres in the State, also the confreres of the Radical majority in the Senate? If the voice of all the intelligence and worth of the State, and a large majority of all the people of the State, falls of effect upon Holden & Co. how can it be expected that a single voice, no matter how eloquent, nor how guided by truth and right will have effect upon their confreres in the U. S. Senate? To indulge such hope, is to blindly hug self delusion.

The evils which are upon us have not been inflicted by the U. S. Senate nor by the General Government. They have been inflicted by our own officials—our Executive and Judicial officers and by an ignorant and corrupt Legislature. No one man, nor could every patriotic man in the State, if all could be sent to the U. S. Senate, cure the evils under which our people are groaning. Then why attach so much importance to the Senatorship?

Is it not wisdom to turn our attention to affairs at home? Yes at home where there is so much to be accomplished and in the accomplishment of which, all the talent and patriotism is so much needed?

It is true that a Senator is to be elected, and some good man should be chosen for the position, but in point of fact, I regard that position far less honorable, and far less important, that many other positions which must also be filled by the Conservative party.

KIRK AND HIS MEN.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.:

DEAR SIR—Notwithstanding there is "judgment suspended" over "Kirk," he violated that suspension yesterday. Early in the morning Kirk disbanded his negro troops, and turned them loose upon our citizens. Later in the day they went to Kirk with the flaming story that A. G. Moore was to march upon the town that night with 300 men. An inoffensive boy was arrested, as having heard Mr. Moore express his determination to march upon Kirk and his men. He was brought before Kirk, and was questioned as to the facts. He denied having ever spoken to Mr. Moore or having heard him say anything about attacking Kirk. He was confronted by a negro who said he did. The boy denied it most bitterly. Kirk turned him loose with the injunction to leave town. He was afterwards driven out of the place by the disbanded negroes. There was not one word of truth in the whole story—a fabrication for the purpose of being again mustered into service and to get possession of rations and guns.

John W. Long came to town this morning with a most horrible tale. He says he was fired into last night while passing from Company Shops home, and was pushed so closely that he had to fly to town to get Kirk's assistance for relief,—this is another falsehood out of the whole cloth.

Daniel C. Holt's barn was burned together with all his rough food, some $1,500 and over, but not one word was said. It was believed by every person to have been perpetrated by Kirk's soldiers. He was a Conservative, and that was all admissable, under the Holden and Kirk regime. Gen. Berry, (the Newbern Mayor,) enquired very particularly if he was a very strong politician. He said if he was he did not care so much. On being informed that he was not, expressed himself with a good deal of dignity, that he was very sorry; that Holden and Kirk were to blame for this misfortune.

General paymaster Berry, left our town under a strong guard to escort him to the depot, it may be that he was afraid of Kirk's men, for no one out side would have interferred with him, notwithstanding, he, like Holden, had "garbled" the ledger for a merchant that he clerked for, which I presume lurks still around his memory.

Mr. Editor one fact has slipped your notice, and that is the part the ladies of Graham took in feeding the "prisoners," while confined in the "Court House." You left it out in your address, nor have they been mentioned. I bespeak for them a small meed of praise. I know they did their whole duty. They had some pride; they did not want Holden or Kirk to feed you. Meals were sent you at the jail that you never tasted, but was consumed outside by the soldiers. J.

P. S.—I understand Kirk wants to leave but can't do so without bringing the U. S. Marshal into a difficulty. His friends already have made propositions to certain parties, that if they would agree to it and not push the matter any further, he would leave with all his men, but the proposition was not agreed to. This I know. "He is in prison bounds." J.

Graham, Sept. 16, 1870.

A NEW ASPECT TO THE NEW "REBELLION."—A few days ago we quoted from our friend, the Raleigh Sentinel, a statement to the effect that a detachment of HOLDEN'S brigands had been sprinkled with birdshot while en route from Salisbury to the State capital of North Carolina, by unknown WINKLES, who treated them as Mr. Pickwick's immortal companion did the plump Mr. Tupam; and took occasion at the same time to deprecate such conduct as subversive of good order and damaging to our friends. Since then, we are glad to see that a correspondent of our cotemporary gives a different account of the transaction, as will be seen by his letter published elsewhere in to-day's Virginian. It now appears that the shooting was indulged by Kirk's lambs, and was a mere fraternal exhibition of their well known habits. With this statement before the country, his Excellency Governor Holden will find it difficult to persuade the public that a new "rebellion" has broken out in Carolina; and all his impassioned eloquence will not be worth the ink used to print it.—Norfolk Virginia.

Resolved, That while we as a body, are not brought directly in contact with the great Sunday School enterprise further than to give it our hearty approbation, we hope the time is not far distant, when we as a body shall be able to bring our efforts to bear, more directly on this great enterprise of the Church, so as to embody the thousands and tens of thousands of children who are now denied this privilege, and thus bring them under the influence of our holy religion, and that we report our progress at the next annual meeting

A long discussion now ensued looking to increased efficiency of the Local Ministry, which resulted in the following

ADVISORY RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we consider the missionary work eminently the field of our operations, especially in the unoccupied ground.

Resolved, That we advise the Local Ministers to have as far as practicable, Sabbath appointments for preaching.

Resolved, That it is desirable for our members in each Presiding Elder's district, to confer together and as far as practicable, form associations auxiliary to the State Association.

Resolved, That it is desirable for each Local Minister to bring annual statements to this Association, in reference to the character and amount of his labors during the year.

On motion, Dr. John A. Reagan, Solomon Pool, and W. R. Webb, were appointed a committee on Missions, to report at the next annual meeting.

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY

OF THE

UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-SIX REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $6,500,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000 000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December, 1. 1869, was $51,031 141.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, showing that capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division; and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It employs the best medical talent for examination of applicants, and writes policies only on the very best lives, thus keeping the mortality among its assured far below the average.
22. Policies in this company may become self-sustaining, by the operation of dividends, after a comparatively short term of years.
23. Policies in this company, by the application of dividends in the appropriate method, constantly increase in amount, without increase of premium, until after the lapse of a term of years, it is expected they will be at least Doubled.
24. Loans in this company are promptly paid, and information always given without delay to the interested parties.
25. It combines all the advantages of all other companies, without any of their objectionable features.
26. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000 000 greater than any other company.

POLICE! POLICE!!—We are informed by a gentleman residing on Hillsboro' street, near the bridge, that a crowd of drunken rowdies are in the habit of roaming up and down that street "making night hideous" with their yells, curses, &c. We know that it is merely necessary to call the Mayor's notice to this matter and the nuisance will be immediately abated.

MAYOR'S COURT, SATURDAY, Sept. 17th.—Henry Hill, col., was arraigned before His Honor, Saturday morning, charged with having forged the name of Green Barnett, col., on an excursion ticket from Raleigh to Charlotte. After hearing various witnesses, His Honor required a bond of $200 of Henry, for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court of this county, which not being able to give, he was given quarters in jail.

Cornelia Hughes, an abandoned character of the worst description, was placed in the watch house on Friday night, and was ordered to "vamose the ranche," or in plain English, to leave the city.

Allen Jackson and Robert Jones, two juvenile 15th amendments, arrested for stealing figs from the garden of a gentleman of this city, expiated their offences by remaining two hours in the lock up.

AN ITEM WITH A MORAL.—Sometime not long before the election, one Joseph Drake, a colored man, was committed to jail for hog stealing, when James H. Harris, the Republican Congressional candidate in this district, very magnanimously released him from confinement by giving the required bail, and Joseph pursued the "even tenor of his way." The election came, and Joseph, as in gratitude bound voted and worked for James. The election passed, James was beaten. On Friday last, James H. Harris withdrew his bail and delivered Joseph up to the tender mercies of the jailer. We know that Joseph is a sadder man but we can only hope that he is a wiser one.

If nothing in the above is calculated to "adorn a tale," we are certain that it "points a moral."

A GOOD SIGN.—For the last two or three days, we have observed a large number of wagons coming in from the country, loaded with flour, turpentine and rosin, &c.

RUMORS.—Two rumors which seem to be of vast importance to our community are now circulating in our midst. One of them is, that Laura Keen has engaged Tucker Hall for the Fair week. The other, that Edwin Forrest has secured it for the same time and for the same purpose. "To be or not to be. That's the question."

BIG HAWK.—We were shown on Friday afternoon a huge Fish Hawk, shot that morning at Yates' Mill, six miles south of this place, by our young friend A. L. Adams, Esq. The Hawk measured five feet seven inches from tip to tip, and is the largest of that species we every saw.

DEITZ'S EXPERIMENTAL FARM, STOCK AND POULTRY JOURNAL.—We have received the September number of this journal, and a casual glance at it enables us to confidently recommend it to those interested in such pursuits. Price for subscription for one year $1.50; address Geo. A. Deitz, Chambersburg, Pa.

An exchange says, that some fox hunters in the eastern part of Person county while out hunting caught an animal, the like of which has never before been seen in that county. From the general description given it is believed to be a catamount that has strayed, no doubt, from the mountains of the State.

NOT TO BE DETECTED.—The hues imparted to gray heads by PHALON'S VITALIA, OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR, are as vivid as those of nature, and the change is not effected by a disregard of cleanliness, as is the case with the other hair coloring preparations, the VITALIA being eminently clean. No sediment. Sold by all druggists and fancy goods dealers.

Trust what Time has Sanctioned.

The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the divinity, may in some cases, be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses extending through a series of years, and all to the same purport is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many ailments is based. During the twenty years that it has been before the world innumerable preparations intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets, and come down the extinguished sticks. Meanwhile the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady—always upward and onward like the eagle's flight. Its introduction produced a revolution in therapeutics and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that cannot go backwards. To-day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in christendom, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation, domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, bilious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, and as a preventive of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious country dealers who endeavor to foist their local abortions on the public in its stead, how futile their small attempts to enjoin the community must necessarily be. Where the game fish have failed there is no chance for the "suckers."

STATE FAIR.—We learn that W. C. Outtler, Agent of Aveling & Porter, Rochester (England) and London, will exhibit at our next State Fair, (Oct. 18th) one of their Road Locomotive or Traction Engines. These engines are largely used in England for Agricultural purposes, such as ploughing, hauling, driving thrashing machines, &c., and will be of exceedingly great interest to our planters. It is thought they could be profitably used in Edgecombe, Halifax and other Eastern counties, where the land is level.

SPECIAL PREMIUMS AGAIN.—We have the pleasure to chronicle to-day, another special premium, offered by Mr. A. Williams, Bookseller of this city, of a beautiful chromo picture, representing a flock of sheep worth $25, to be awarded in addition to the premium offered by the society, to the best lot of sheep (Ewes) not less than 3, (Sweepstakes.)

We omitted to state that the total premiums for the best bull (Sweepstakes,) are $40.

It will be remembered that all special premiums are in addition to those offered by the society.

TRIAL OF FIRE ENGINES—STATE FAIR.—We learn from a responsible source that the Steam Fire Companies of Wilmington and Newbern, will compete at the next State Fair for the silver horn offered by the N. C. Agricultural Society. This will be a very attractive feature of the Fair. The plan of operation will probable be for the Companies to parade around the track and then adjourn to the Rock quarry close by, where there is a large pond of water, large enough for the consumption of all the Companies in the State.

These Steam Fire Engines are wonderful specimens of mechanical art, and those who have not witnessed their operations will be not only amused but instructed by the exhibition of their powers.

We have not ascertained whether any Hand Companies will compete for the prizes but presume they will.

About half a mile of track is laid per day on the Williamston and Tarboro' R. R.

Owing to the recent change of schedule on the N. C. Railroad, the stage from High Point arrives at Salem at 8 o'clock, A. M., and leaves 3 o'clock, P. M.

Having been convicted for larceny at the recent term of the Superior Court of Surry county, James Thompson was sentenced to four and Jerry Shropshire to two years in the penitentiary.

Forsythe county has a population of 13,042; of this number 2,496 are voters.

THE MITRAILLEUR AND THE FIELD GUN.—A correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette, writing from before Metz on the 23d ult., says:

One of the reasons of the great slaughter caused at close quarters by the mitrailleurs was that the men who had only seen them fire at a distance despised them, and so rushed on them recklessly, and were frightfully butchered. The mitrailleurs—eight in number—were in as many separate earth works behind the Verdun road on Thursday. They were so placed that it was next to impossible for the Prussian artillery to reach them, being a little lower than the road and just sweeping it. This not only served to protect them from the enemy's shells, but prevented the gunners from firing at too great distances, for the mitrailleurs were placed so low down that they could only reach the Prussians either on the road itself or on the last 200 yards up the slope. We below could tell even after dark when the attacking columns were closely engaged by the sullen roar of the mitrailleurs a quite peculiar sound, plainly distinguishable even above the deafening roar of Thursday's artillery.

The Editor of the Western "Sentinel" advertises for the recovery of his stolen dog. If the fellow had stolen the editor and left the dog, there would have been less dishonest bark and a more honest bite about the Sentinel.—Raleigh Standard.

That might be. Dogs are honest animals, but we are under the impression that "Dad" made a failure in that respect when he employed h's "purp," to edit the "Standard."—Western Sentinel.

The Montgomery Mail and the Columbus (Georgia) Enquirer concur in their testimony that in Georgia no man who was a true Union man during the war is a Radical now. In Virginia, with an exception now and then, the same is the case.—Virginia paper.

A CARD.

MR. L. G. ESTES late U. S. Internal Revenue Collector of the Dist. N. C. purchased of us in the Spring of 1864 a fine Gold Watch, and under date of June 1869 writes thus: "It was a present to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of which I am a member." This Watch is still unpaid for; and though we wrote Estes repeatedly—he paid no attention whatever to our letters, leaving us but one inference, that he did not intend to pay for it.

Estes in a published "Card" says he bought of us goods amounting in value to over $1 000 but owed more than so (and we feel assured it is so)—it has nothing to do with the case. Estes claims further to have paid in part; but his remittance was cancelled by a PREVIOUS INDEBTEDNESS for a breast pin,—leaving the watch still unpaid for.

With the personally abusive part of Mr. Estes "Card" we have only to say that it is wholly false as to the assumed fact. No other notice is necessary from gentlemen, of abuse of which no gentleman could be guilty.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept 17.—The Tribune special dispatch from Paris, dated the 16th says: An engagement occurred this morning on the Road from Meiun to Briccomesnebert, between the sharp shooters and Prussians; result unknown.

Railroad employees are armed. Immense quantities of grain and fodder were taken from Railroad Stations and stored in the center of the City. Six hundred Prussians appeared in gunshot of the Fort of Vanves, having crept under cover of the woods on the higths. The advance guard of the enemy have been signalled at Creteil.

The Herald's special dispatch from London, dated the 17th says: General Venery at the head of the new army has commenced exterior operations. He manœuvers to prevent an invasion of the departments, where the enemy can seize provisions. Two corps are nearly ready for the west and center Provinces.

The Constitutionel says that the Prussians will occupy Havre and Cherbourg, and cut all communication with England.

At Creteil 6 Lines of fortifications are successfully attacked the Prussians fear Guilmes.

FOREIGN.

PARIS, Sept. 16.—The Prussians at several points are almost within cannon shot of the walls.

A number of prisoners were taken yesterday by the Prussian cavalry and sharp shooters, and several convoys of munitions of war and provisions were also captured. The Prussians now occupy small woods around Paris, which were too green to burn. There has been cannonading and musketry firing all day in the direction of Bourge. Many Prussian spies were arrested yesterday in and around Paris. Twenty-two thousand Garden Mobiles arrived at Paris yesterday.

The Tribune's special says that Marshall Vaillant was arrested amid hostile demonstrations.

The Prussians are numerous near Villeneuve, Dammartin and Ludesseva. Three thousand occupy Villiers and Cutteria. Ten thousand are at Neubreck.

BERLIN, Sept. 17.—A German apprentice at Wilhelmshohe, attempted to assassinate the Emperor. He was arrested and a loaded pistol found upon his person. He declared that the bullet was designed for Napoleon.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Bavaria repudiates the claim to enter the North German Confederation.

The Standard's Berlin correspondent, gives the substance of a recent conversation with Bismarck. The latter affirmed that Prussia would prosecute the war indefinitely rather than abandon the idea of territorial aggrandizement.

The scarcity of printing paper is seriously felt. The Gallignani and Messenger, recently reduced in size from this cause, announces today a suspension for a few days.

Saturday Night Dispatches.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The special London correspondent of the Times writing from Paris 15th inst. says: The frequent interviews between Favre and Ocesga are attracting much attention. The latter left for Madrid last night. It is evident that the King of Prussia hopes for assistance within the walls of Paris, thus carrying out the old military trick. Within the last few days great many Uhlans have been captured, all of whom pretend to have lost their horses.—Two were taken on Tuesday at a great distance from their corps. It is a curious fact that all these prisoners speak French perfectly. Boats impelled to impress to keep Prussian prisoners in the city when the fight begins.

The commandant of the Fortress of Laon has been exonerated of the charge of blowing up the Citadel. The work was done by the guard of the magazine.

VIRGINIA.

STAUNTON, Sept. 17.—The city of Staunton voted on the additional fifty thousand dollars to-day, making the total subscription three million of dollars, which insures the construction of the Valley Railroad, from Harrisonburg to Salem via Staunton and Lexington. The remaining two hundred thousand dollars are subscribed by private individuals.

Ex-Gov. Bigler of Penn., arrived at the Virginia Springs this evening.

LYNCHBURG, Sept. 17.—The Agricultural Fair commences October 11th, not the 5th, as heretofore stated.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—News from Paris is meagre and contradictory. The usual lines are interrupted. The Northern Railroad from Orleans to Paris is cut about 8 miles south of Paris, where the Uhlans have pushed a battery. Heavy firing is heard in that direction. Heavy fighting occurred at Ris, another small town on the Orleans Railroad. The Railroad to Laon has been abandoned to the Prussians. Grain at the station was removed to the city before Prussian occupation. Provisions are plenty.

A hundred and fifty sacks of mopha was picked up off the English coast.

It is said that the Prussian siege train is still aground in the Canal de La Marne. Many of the old Parisian police have been arrested, charged with implication in the Bonaparte plot.—The nephew of the Ex Prefect of the Seine, was recently arrested. He is believed to be the head of the conspiracy.

Turkey has tendered the reserves of the entire Empire.

The interest on French Treasury bonds is fixed at 5½ per cent.

The Crown Prince of Prussia ad dressed a circular to the German people, urging the creation of a fund for the sick and wounded.

The Economist has a strong article in favor of peace. It says that the very object of the war was to obtain the principle of German Unity against the objects of France, and that object now being attained, mankind should interpose to save Paris. No triumphs justify the destruction of any great city, shall be tolerated.

HAVANA, Sept. 17.—The submarine telegraph is working to Jamaica.

MADRID Sept. 17.—All but the ultra Catholic press are delighted at the end of the Pope's temporal power.

FLORENCE, Sept. 17.—The Italians are quietly but rapidly occupying the Pontifical territory. General Kanzler, Commander-in-Chief of the Pontifical forces, refused to surrender to them.

CLOGNE, Sept 17.—The Gazette of this city to-day gives the following statistics and particulars: "There are now before Strasburg 18 batteries of mortars and rifled cannon. These fire collectively more than 70,000 shots into the city daily. Thirty-six loads of munitions of war including 8,000 quintals of iron ore are consumed daily.

The Gazette shows the immense expense of besieging Paris, and that five times the amount of the above resources must be exhausted.

ROME, Sept. 17.—The inhabitants of the city have received a flag of truce from General Cardona, who commands the Italian troops, which have arrived very near to the city. The truce was received by the people with a great demonstration of favor, and they will not permit the Papal Zouaves to resist the entry of the Italian troops.

AGRICULTURAL.

THE BEST DEPTH TO SOW WHEAT.

In the Annual Register of Rural Affairs for 1866, published by Luther Tucker & son, Albany, N. Y., and edited by that well-known agriculturist, J. J. Thomas, we find a record of an interesting series of experiments in wheat sowing, of which the following are the results: Planted half inch deep, the plants came up in five days; planted one inch deep, the plants came up in six days; planted two inches deep, the plants came up in seven days; planted three inches deep, the plants came up in eight days; planted four inches deep, the plants came up in ten days; planted six inches deep, the plants came up in twelve days.

Five weeks afterward, there was no perceptible difference in that planted half an inch, and an inch deep; that planted two inches deep was not quite so good, and decreasing in quality as the depth of planting increased. As the crop approaches maturity, the difference between the shallow and deep planting becomes less obvious—so that one inch and three inch planting are not greatly different in their results, although the deeper planting is a little later ripening, and is hardly so productive. For this reason wheat planted with a good drill on well prepared and rolled ground, where it may be put in with great evenness, ripens more uniformly, and brings a rather better return than wheat sown broadcast and covered with a harrow at all different depths. For the same reason twenty five per cent in seed is saved by using the drill. That is, a bushel and a half per acre will answer the same purpose, if properly drilled in, as two bushels sown broadcast and harrowed. In a fairly loose soil, the depth may be greater than in one more heavy and compact. A greater depth is required during a time of severe drouth than when the soil has a good supply of moisture. As a general average, a depth of two inches is enough. One inch would be better if the soil were sufficiently moist; but it is difficult to get a drill so as to deposit the seed uniformly so shallow.

STORING HAY.—Hay should be stored and managed much as the Chinese manage their tea. When ready for storage, it should be kept as closely from the air as possible. If it could be hermetically sealed up, no fermentation or decay could take place. Air is the great agent in giving vitality to matter which has life.

It is ever busy in decomposing that it may have material wherewith to recompose, and if we can keep air away from grass, it will be preserved from decay just as pie plant, peaches, etc., are preserved when canned. The hay in the middle of a large mow is to all intents and purposes hermetically sealed—that is, no air penetrates to it—and this has will be found with its natural strength unabated. Its aroma will be like that of green tea, and cattle feeding upon it will be strengthened and exhilarated.

This leads us to say that there is a certain principle in hay analogous to, if not identical with, the theine of tea, which is volatile, and therefore wastes when hay is dried too much or is moved after it has been stored in the mow. This principle, which we call theine for the want of a better, exerts the same influence on the animal economy as tea does upon man; it strengthens, exhilarates and prevents the waste of animal tissue. We feel this exhilarating and strengthening effect while we are working in the hay, for it is patent to the most common observer that nowhere does he feel his muscle so braced up to work as when in the hay field, or pitching off a load of hay. It abounds most when the grass is in bloom, and at this time grass should be cut, and dried with as little exposure to sunshine and rain as possible. The sun evaporates it—rain soaks it out. When ready for storage, it should be put in large and tight bales, and the closer it is compressed the better, and when the hay is fed out, the mows should be cut down so as to expose as little surface to the air as possible. Every one knows that hay moved from one barn to another does not spend well. The reason is that the theine evaporates in the transportation. Tea cannot be moved from one chest to another without losing some of its virtue, and the not uncommon practice of throwing upon the barn floor over night the hay which is to be fed out in the morning, is as foolish as it would be for the housewife to take out at one meal from the tea caddy the allowance for the next drawing. Much of the aroma goes into the thin air. The hay crop is too precious to be thus wasted.—Country Gentleman.

SOFT CORNS.—Take a soft piece of sponge or cotton batting and mix it well with powdered chalk or whiting, and apply it between the toes over the corn. It absorbs all the moisture, and will give relief in most cases in a few hours.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1865.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound; not, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in propounding it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is liquid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. This giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28x0in; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the gains upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this state who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, such as Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.
